Coach & Manager Code of Conduct

The International Soccer Club (ISC) expects all Coaches and Managers to be a positive representation of the Club at all times. As such, ISC has implemented the following Code of Conduct and requires that it be adhered to at all times. ISC will ensure all Coaches and Managers are made aware of this Code and will make it available on the Club's website as well as in manuals and handbooks. If a Coach or Manager fails to comply with the standards set forth in this Code, disciplinary measures may be taken by the Club.

A Coach/Manager must:

1. Create and maintain a positive environment that promotes team building and development.
2. Be committed to improving the performance of the players and the team, both physically and mentally.
3. Provide a high-quality soccer program that positively reflects the values of the International Soccer Club.
4. Comply with all ISC policies and procedures as stated in league manuals, on the website, and through official communications.
5. Never create an environment that anyone affiliated with the team might find offensive, sexually suggestive, or uncomfortable in any way.
6. Ensure that player safety is a top priority at all times.
7. Be thoroughly familiar with the FIFA Laws of the Game and adhere to sound coaching principles.
8. Show respect to everyone involved in the game — players, referees, coaches, and spectators. Opponents and match officials must be treated with respect at all times.
9. Act as a positive role model at all times, understanding that players often look up to team officials and model their behavior accordingly.

10. Encourage players to demonstrate good sportsmanship, be gracious in both victory and defeat, and always play fairly within the laws of the game.
11. Be enthusiastic and positive. Offer praise when deserved, and provide constructive feedback that promotes improvement and builds confidence.
